

GLC announces a new fixed income division

Effective October 1, 2012, GLC Asset Management Group Ltd. introduced Portico Investment Management, a new GLC investment division specializing in fixed income portfolio management and offering a wide spectrum of core and specialized fixed income mandates.

*“The launch of Portico furthers GLC’s evolution as a leading money manager in Canada.”
Ruth Ann McConkey, President, GLC Asset Management Group Ltd.*

Portico leverages the existing expertise and depth of capabilities of GLC’s fixed income investment professionals, and provides additional opportunities for the expansion of GLC’s mandate capabilities and offerings - particularly important in today’s environment where investors are seeking a broader range of income-oriented investment solutions.

GLC has four investment divisions, GWL Investment Management, London Capital Management, Laketon Investment Management and Portico Investment Management, each one distinct, robust and strong.

GLC Asset Management Group Ltd. (GLC) is a leading investment manager in Canada with over $31 billion* in assets under management. GLC offers a broad range of investment mandates in traditional and specialty asset classes, as well as major investment styles, through distinct investment management divisions, GWL Investment Management (GWLIM), London Capital Management, Laketon Investment Management and Portico Investment Management. GLC is a Canadian portfolio management subsidiary of The Great-West Life Assurance Company. Great-West Life has $208 billion in assets under administration and is a subsidiary of Great-West Lifeco Inc. and a member of the Power Financial Corporation group of companies. *Assets under management at June 30, 2012. Assets under administration at March 31, 2012
